Sloan Program in Health Administration
Policy Analysis and Management
College of Human Ecology

Spring 2014 Colloquium Series
PAM 5990: Challenges and Trends in the Health Services Industry

The mission of the Sloan MHA, BS/MHA, and MHA/MBA Programs is to train future leaders of health related organizations.

William White, Ph.D.
Director (607) 254-6476

Julie Carmalt, Ph.D.
Associate Director (607) 255-2502

Brooke Hollis
Executive Director (607) 254-8711

www.sloan.cornell.edu

January 24
10:30AM-Noon
CLARK 700

Help Wanted: Building a Career in the New World of Healthcare
Lee Perlman, Sloan ’82, Executive Vice President of Administration and Chief Financial Officer, GNYHA; President, GNYHA Ventures, Inc.; Managing Director, Happique

February 21
10-11:30AM
CLARK 700

The Role of Insurance in Healthcare Reform
Jing Wang MacKenzie Sloan ’00, Vice President at the Accountable Care Advisory Services, Aetna

April 25
11AM-12:30PM
CLARK 700

Business Plans at Health Organizations
Neil Tarallo, Senior Lecturer, Management and Organization Behavior, School of Hotel Administration, Cornell University
Louis Walcer, Director, Kevin M. McGovern Family Center for Venture Development in the Life Sciences, Cornell University
Daniel Grauman, ’80 Sloan, President & CEO, DGA Partners